BTC kicked off its holiday giving season partnering with the Grand Bahama Branch of the Bahamas Red Cross, Meals on Wheels Programme on Thursday (November 22) at the local centre.

BTC has been partnering with the local Red Cross since 2012 and the company's Vice President for Networks and Engineering, Trevor Turnquest said that BTC is proud to be a part of this initiative.

"We give food to persons in need throughout Grand Bahama," he said.

BTC also provides funding so that meals can be delivered to the less fortunate and a group of volunteers from the company assists in delivering the meals to residents from the eastern to the western areas of the island in a BTC bus.

Turnquest revealed that BTC consistently partners with the Red Cross, because it is an entity that serves all aspects of The Bahamas, as it relates to persons in need.

"We know the work that they do is important to The Bahamas," he said.

According to Turnquest, the company wants to make its presence known in the community not only through its business

HISTORICAL INSTALLATION

On Sunday, November 18 hundreds of family, friends and well-wishers joined clergymen of Zion United Baptist Convention (ZUBC) and other congregations to witness the historical installation of the first female pastor of ZUBC, Agatha Martin. The newly installed pastor has been a faithful servant of Mt. Zion Baptist Church for years, under the leadership of the late Rev. Dr. Ralph Russell and Rev. Dr. Raymond Jones, and more recently Rev. H. Lindy Russell. Following Rev. Russell's retirement as the senior pastor of the local congregation in Jones Town, Eight Mile Rock, Rev. Martin was selected to replace him. The official installation marked a milestone for ZUBC and Rev. Martin, who will be assisted by Rev. Ken Russell, was also officially installed, during the Sunday afternoon service. An organization that is geared towards community service, International Federation of Women Lawyers (FIDA), Grand Bahama Chapter organized a food drive among its members on November 22, to assist the Grand Bahama Children's Home.

FIDA main focus is to promote the welfare and empowerment of women and children and with that mandate FIDA President Zia Lewis-Adams stressed that she wanted to assist children in any way the organization could.

"During my tenure as president I want us to provide assistance to GBCH and today, I am delighted to make this presentation which will assist in alleviating the responsibility of feeding the children.

"I wanted to create a stronger partnership with the Grand Bahama Children's Home and this is an organization that is always in need, they always need assistance. Even though there are other members in the community that give to them, after speaking to Sheila Johnson-Smith (GB Children's Home Executive Director) we realized the need is still great."
