The Aliv Tip-Off Basketball Classic is winding down and the play-off picture got a whole lot clearer this past Saturday at the St. George's Gymnasium.

For the senior girls' championship clash was set in stone for Tuesday night. The Bishop Michael Eldon Warriors and the St. George's Jaguars in the semi-finals played Saturday afternoon. The Warriors took care of business, winning that one easily, 30-10.

Myah Greene led the way with 14 points, while Arjene Stubbs added six points. Jamiela Miller led the Jags with five points.

The defending champions, Tabernacle Falcons, punched their ticket to return to the big dance with a 46-32 victory over the Eight Mile Rock Blue Jays.

Tatyanna Lockhart erupted for 21 points, while Diondrea Nixon added six points in the win. Tavia Solomon led the Blue Jays with 14 points and Deliah Rigby chipped in with eight points.

The Jaguars and Blue Jays will face off this afternoon at 4:00 p.m. to determine the third place winners.

As for the senior boys, their semi-finals match-ups were also determined. The defending champion Falcons made short work of the BMES Warriors. They won that one easily, 46-16. Desmond Butler totaled 16 points in the win for the Falcons, while Regis Cooper added 10 points.

Kadeem Russell and Travis Joseph each had five points in the loss.

The St. George's Jaguars found themselves in a close contest with the Pine Forest Academy Phoenix. Nonetheless, the national champions edged the Phoenix 36-30.

Christopher Johnson led the Jags with nine points, while Troy Petty added eight points. Enrico Joseph totaled a game-high 13 points for the Phoenix in the loss, while Eliian Bain chipped in with seven points.

The Sunland Stingers handled the Mary Star Crusaders, 50-12. Howard Burrows led the Stingers with 10 points, while Raymond Clarke added eight points in the win. Donavan Clarke led the Crusaders with seven points.

The Jack Hayward Wildcats downed the Blue Jays by a score of 47-20. Jalen Hall led all scorers with points, while Trimaine Ferguson and Edward Williams each added eight points. Devonte Taylor led the Blue Jays with six points.

The Wildcats will take on the Falcons this afternoon in the semis at 5:00 p.m. and the Stingers will face the Jags at 6:00 p.m.

Tuesday schedule

The losers of the semi-finals' contests will face off for third place Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. The Warriors will face off against the Falcons at 5:00 p.m. to determine the senior girls' championship. The senior boys' championship is scheduled to tip-off at 6:00 p.m.
